

The Ultimate Guide to Local Invermere Activities This Summer

Invermere is a beautiful town nestled in the heart of the Canadian Rockies, and it offers a wide variety of exciting activities to enjoy during the summer months. From outdoor adventures like hiking, biking, and water sports, to unique experiences like visiting local attractions and exploring the area's natural beauty, there are plenty of Invermere activities to keep you entertained all season long. This blog post is the ultimate guide to all the best local summer activities Invermere has to offer!

Hiking and Biking Trails in Invermere

The Columbia Valley in British Columbia boasts a plethora of scenic hiking and biking trails that are perfect for exploring during summer in BC. In Invermere, visitors can hit the trails at Panorama Mountain Resort, or opt for the stunning Lake Lillian Trail. Don't miss out on the popular Toby Creek Trail, or take a challenging ride up Mount Swansea for a panoramic view of the valley. With so many options, outdoor enthusiasts will have plenty to discover in Invermere.

Water Activities at Lake Windermere

Located in the heart of the Columbia Valley in British Columbia, Lake Windermere is a popular spot for summer water activities. From paddleboarding to kayaking and swimming, there is something for everyone. The crystal-clear water and stunning mountain backdrop make for an unforgettable experience of summer in BC. Don't forget to pack a picnic and enjoy the day on the sandy beaches along the shoreline.

Golfing in the Valley

For avid golfers, the Columbia Valley in British Columbia offers some of the best golf courses in the region. With beautiful scenery and challenging greens, golfing in the valley is a must-do activity for anyone spending their summer in BC. Whether you're a beginner or an experienced player, you'll find a course that suits your skill level and provides a memorable experience. So pack your clubs and tee off in the stunning Columbia Valley this summer!

Farmer's Market and Local Festivals

Experience the local flavor of Invermere at the Farmer's Market, held every Saturday throughout the summer. Enjoy fresh produce, baked goods, artisanal crafts, and live entertainment. Don't miss the popular Feast of Invermere festival, featuring local chefs, wineries, and breweries. Other events include the Annual garlic Festival, Kinsmen Club's annual Waterfront Music Festival and weekly art walks. Check the link below for more information on upcoming festivals and events.

<https://travelcolumbiavalley.com/events/>

Horseback Riding and Guided Tours

Experience the beauty of Invermere's natural landscape on horseback or with a guided tour. Enjoy the tranquility of riding through the mountains, and soak in the stunning views. Many local ranches offer horseback riding, ranging from hour-long tours to multi-day excursions. You can also explore the area with guided tours on foot, by bike, or by ATV, depending on your preferred mode of transportation. Let a local guide show you the best spots and share their knowledge about the area's flora, fauna, and history. Toby Creek Adventures and Playwest Mountain Experiences are two local companies that will provide an abundance of guided fun for visitors!

Adventure Parks and Zip-lining

For those who are seeking a thrill this summer, Invermere offers several adventure parks and zip-lining experiences. Panorama Mountain Resort's High Notes Adventure Park has something for everyone, from high ropes courses to ziplines with scenic views. The nearby Kootenay River Runners Adventure Park offers a more intense experience with whitewater rafting and cliff jumping. For a unique and adrenaline-pumping experience, try the Fairmont or Radium Zip-line adventure parks.

Scenic Drives and Hot Springs

Invermere is surrounded by stunning mountain ranges and scenic routes that make for a memorable drive. Take a leisurely cruise on the Windermere Loop, which offers breathtaking views of the lake and surrounding peaks. For a unique experience, head to Radium Hot Springs and relax in the natural hot pools while taking in the surrounding mountains. If you're up for a drive, Lussier hot spring is an incredible oasis tucked right beside a glacier-fed river. This is the perfect way to unwind after a day of adventure in Invermere. Don't forget to bring your camera to capture the picturesque landscapes along the way.

Shopping and Dining in Downtown Invermere

Downtown Invermere is home to a variety of local shops and restaurants that offer something for everyone. Browse the quaint boutiques and art galleries, or grab a bite to eat at one of the many cafes, pubs, or fine dining establishments. Don't miss out on the unique culinary experiences that Invermere has to offer. From craft beer and wine tastings to locally sourced ingredients and farm-to-table dining options, the food scene in Invermere is not to be missed.

With so much to do, you're going to want a comfortable place to rest your head after an exciting day. Stay at the luxury Copper Point Resort or the convenient Invermere Inn and enjoy everything this beautiful valley has to offer. We can't wait to see you!